

Tonia's Remarkable Journey in Entertainment and Advocacy

Tonia, a dynamic force in New Jersey's entertainment scene, has left an indelible mark through her multifaceted roles. Let's delve deeper into her inspiring journey:

Collaborations with Industry Leaders:

Tonia has worked alongside some of New Jersey's most influential figures, including promoters, event coordinators, producers, songwriters, fashion designers, models, artists, authors, and filmmakers. Her ability to connect with diverse talents has been instrumental in shaping the local entertainment landscape.

Empowering Youth Through the Arts:

As the founder of Champagne Entertainment Management, Tonia goes beyond talent scouting. Her company nurtures and develops emerging young artists and dancers. But it's not just about talent; Tonia emphasizes a spirit of service to the community. Regular community-based events, such as toy drives, coat drives, and food drives, demonstrate her commitment to making a positive impact.

Dance Program Leadership:

Tonia's influence extends to the City of East Orange and the Boylan Street Recreation Center in Newark. She served as the Director of the Dance Program, fostering creativity and discipline among young dancers. Her passion for the arts shines through in every step she takes.

Empowering Youth Through Community Recreation:

As the former Public Relations Director and Director of Entertainment at the FP YOUTHOUTCRY Foundation, as well as Director of Dance & Model Training at the both East Orange and Boylan Street Recreation Centers, Tonia played a pivotal role in entertaining, educating, and empowering youth. Her dedication to their well-being is unwavering.

Advocacy for Troubled Teens and Families:

Tonia's heart lies in helping troubled teens and their families. She becomes their voice when they feel unheard. While she acknowledges she's not a superhero, her tireless efforts make a significant difference.

NABFEME Membership and Collaborations:

Tonia is an active member of NABFEME (National Association of Black Female Executives in Music & Entertainment, Inc). Her collaboration with Ms. Johnnie Walker, the founder of NABFEME and a former Def Jam President of Promotions, underscores her commitment to uplifting female artists.

Urban-Based Production Dreams:

Beyond her advocacy and entertainment roles, Tonia coordinated the groundbreaking 1st Urban-Based production "A Jersey Story". Her vision is to see it grace the Broadway stage someday—a testament to her unwavering determination.

Tonia's journey is a symphony of talent, compassion, and resilience. She continues to inspire those around her, leaving an indelible mark on New Jersey's cultural landscape.
